WHERE THEY	PLAY TO-DAY.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

The Browns arrived from Kansas City yesterday morning, where they had a little light practice with the Western Leaguers. which afforded good workouts for the play-

Soon after their arrival Manager McAless hustled them out to Sportsman's Park where they indulged in a little practice. The grounds were a trifle wet, but McAleer was bent on getting his men in the best possi-ble shape for the American League opening. When the Browns came back from Baton Rouge, early in the month, the players were not in the best of condition. Their games with the Cardinals, interspersed with practice stunts, put them about right, and the tapering off they got in their games with St. Joseph and Kansas City teams of the Western League, has put them in fettle to tackle any kind of work. During the day Burkett was busy with the willow. Jesse is a glutton for work. When the regular pitchers get tired tossing when the regular pitchers get they tossing them over to Jesse, he gets the small boys to pitch to him by offering the ball as a prize to the best pitcher. The Browns will take their last practice to-day prior to their meeting with the Chi-cago White Sox's to-morrow.

LINE-UP OF TEAMS.

LINE-UP OF TEAMS.

The probable line-up of the teams for the opening game will be:
Chicaro-Hallam, 1f.: Jones, c.f.: Green, v.f.: Callaham, 3b.; Isbeil, 1b.; Daly, 2b.; Tannehill, s.: McFarlamb, c.: Patterson, White or Pat Flaherty, p.
The Browns will beat in the following order: Burkett, 1f.: Heldrick, c.f.: Hemphill, r.f.: Anderson, 1b.; Wallace, s.; McCormick, 3b.; Padden, 2b.; Kahee, c.; Slever, Powell or Sudhoff, p.
The Browns are in fine trim. Never before in spring practice has Burkett shown such a keen eye. He is meeting the ball as he did in the old Cleveland days.
One thing the ordinary baseball man overlocks, and that is Burkett's fielding ability. His batting has always been so good that he has been practically forgotten as a fielder, but there is not another man in the American League that has pulled more rames out of the furnice by sensational catches than Burkett.

Heldrick is doing good. His legs are not bothering him. He has his eye on the ball, and his throwing arm is in such trim that the Chicago player who happens to send one towards him better run fast or he will wake up to find the ball waiting for him.

Wallace, Padden, McCormick and Ander-

the utility man, is ripe as a cherry

BOSTON 4-7, PHILADELPHIA 3-10. Ten Timely Hits Give Visitors the Runs They Need.

Boston, April 29.—Ten hits, including doubles in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings, gave Philadelphia eight runs, clinching the afternoon game. Willis was hit hard throughout, while Mitchell kept Boston's hits well scattered.

In the morning game Philadelphia was beaten, McFetridge went to pieces in the sixth, giving a pass, making a wild throw and letting Boston get a single and a double, all of which netted three runs for the local team and the game. Scores:

CAPTAIN CREECY LEADS SEVENTH DISTRICT SQUAD.

Total of One Hundred and Fifteen Yes terday Puts Him in Advance of Other Expert Shots.

Captain Creecy led his squad of police from the Seventh District in revolver practice yesterday as was expected, his total of 115 being the highest accored throughout the day. Patroiman Hamcock pushed him closely for first homors, however, finishing but one point away with a total of 115. Policemen Coughlin and Rooney tied for third position with 185 points each, while Sergeants O'Leary and McNames finished well up with sogres of 185 and 187 respectively. Policemen Woody and Mackey tied with 165 points each, and Folicemen Evans and Burns scored & and 51 respectively. Patroiman Quinn scored 72.

This total of scores was the best, in point of average total, yet made on the range, the district turning out some really good scores. Captain Creecy still leads the squad for the three rounds at the range, although his work yesterday was a disappointment to him and to Drillmaster Roemer. Captain Creecy had been expected to break his own record of 121, which stands as the highest total yet made on the range, but one had shot spoiled his score of yesterday. Besides leading the squad from the Seventh District his score of yesterday placed him in advance of the entire force in totals for the three rounds at the range. He now has 325 points to his credit, although Patroiman Sears of the Central District needs but ill on his third round next Sunday to place him abead of the Captain.

Elghth District police will practice to-day.

Pflueger and Thompson Defeated Kern and Pabst in Special Match Game.

W. V. Thompson and Pflueger of Chicago won their special match game from Kern and Pabst on the Grand alleys last evening. beating the local men out by fifty-six pins beating the local men out by fifty-six pins and capturing four games out of the five. The contest was exciting throughout, and the interest was maintained until the last ball had been bowled.

At the close of the second game, when Kern's splendid work gave the local men the margin of advantage in number of pins, the enthusiasm rese to a high pitch, and it appeared as if the St. Louis experts had a strong chance to land the first pince. The third game was won by rather a narrow margin by the visitors, and even in the last contest the home pair had a chance to pull out ahead.

It had been agreed that the total number of pins was to count, and this gave the victory to the visitors in both ways—by number of games and number of pins. Pfluege made the best average of the evening, himark being 1901-5.

The score was: Name. KERN AND PARST.

He has a knockout punch in either hand and his methods have given him a strong following among the sporting population.

Sullivan is also popular here, and the bout should prove attractive. The men have agreed to weigh in at 122 pounds, and this figure will give each fighter an even chance. Sullivan has been training, in expectation of being put on with McPadden, and is in good stripe. Verback is in social trein hander.

Philadelphia, April 20—in one of the fastest fights witnessed in Philadelphia in a long while. Tommy Love, the clever local bantam-weight stood off the attacks of the world's champion. Harry Forbes of Chicago, for six rounds, the limit of the law cago, for six rounds, the limit of the law cago, for six rounds, the limit of the law in Quaker sports do not care for little boxers, the lads drew a big house. On the showing made by Forbes at this club a week ago, he was a big favorite with the spectators, and many bets were made that he would knock Love out.

The hiter, however, had many supporters and they won a good deal of money as a result of his remaining the limit. The boys went the six rounds at a rapid pace. Forbes, after the first round, grew careful and gave a pretty exhibition of a champion trying for a knockout blow.

Love, however, was clever and not only guarded his jaw but used a left-hand putch to the chin which took considerable steam from Harry.

Love grew stronger as the bout progressed, and in the third, fourth and part of the fifth rounds did the leading. In the third round the men's heads came together and a big gash was opened over one of Forbes's eyes. This did not trouble him and he hurried things through in an effort to end the bout with a punch.

In the fifth round Forbes landed a right-hander on Tommy's law and sent him down on both knees. The Quaker was up in a second, however, and rushing the champion landed a left and a right to the head. The sixth was very fast.

Just before the last bell Forbes cnught Love with a right to the law which sent him reeling. He was after him with a left that would have put him out had not the bell sounded.

Jimmy Duan Accidentally Disposed of Official in Bout With Whitaker.

Jimmy Dunn, the feather-weight boxer who appeared twice in this city recently. furnished a unique item to pugilistic history Saturday evening when he accidentally knocked out the referee, who was efficiating a, his bout with Johnny Whittaker. So decisive was the knockout that another official had to be substituted.

official had to be substituted.

The incident occurred at Beaver Falls, Pa., where Dunn and Whittisker were matched to go fifteen rounds. Whittaker, who is a negro lighter, was having somewhat the better of the argument, and Dunn took to hitting in clinches, although this was against the terms of the articles. Referee Braden undertook to separate the men and had a lively time wrestling with the pair. MILITARY RELAY RACE.

Silivan has been training in expectation of being put on with McPadden, and is in good shape. Forbes is in good trim, having had a fight as late as last Saturday eventing.

On that occasion he met George Hennings of Brookiyn before a club in Milwaukes, beating him hadly and forcing Hennings's seconds to throw up the sponge after the fourth round.

Johnny Rogan, who has been in training here for the last few weeks, will meet the winner of the bout one week from Thursday.

FORBES BESTED LOVE.

Bly doubtless will win the match, as he seems to be the steadler player. His work is clean cut, and he plays with a confidence the younger player does not possess. Still Hueston's adherents figure that held on well last might, and can be relied on the regulation table frequently, while Hueston has not seen one for about three years. However, the small packets are said to be to Hueston's liking, and he is expected to do better than he would on a smaller table.

Missouri Athletic Club Pians Big Indoor Track Meet for Next Fall.

Secretary James Sullivan of the Amateur Athletic Union and Secretary Genslinger of the Missouri Athletic Club held an informal conference yesterday while Mr. Sullivan was being shown through the building of the institution. As a result of the talk it seems practically certain that a big indoor meet will be held next fall under the club's auspices.

Although nothing definite was decided upon, the idea of such a meet, held under the auspices of the A. A. U., was warmly approved by Mr. Sullivan, and Secretary Genslinger believes that it will prove a noputar innovation. Success attending the indoor meet of the St. Louis University shows that such evenus are well attended here, and it is thought that this city can be made a central point for athleties.

"Everything points to the fact that such a meet should be a success," said Mr. Genslinger, "and the idea will probably be followed out by the club. This institution wishes to encourage all kinds of legitimate sports, and it would hold such a meet strictly under the auspices of the A. A. U. "Mr. Sullivan indoorsed the idea, and was well picased with our club when we showed him through it. He stated that he was astenished at the completeness of the Institution in every respect."

Smith Academy's team put up a good contest on the diamond Saturday, although the boys finally went down to defeat before Washington. It took twelve innings for the cellegians to accomplish the feat, however, and the showing made by the younger players was good.

Holthaus and Scott were tried out as pitchers and did some good work. Norries showed well in the catcher's box, and Stannard did some good work at first base.
